

16:19
106

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 3. to Tuesday June 6. 1757.

Cassel, June 9.

ON Friday last Brigadier Sutton, Envoy Extraordinary of the King of Great Britain, accompanied the Landgrave at a Review of three Regiments of Horse, viz. those of Corps, Boynenbourg, Diemar, with the King of Sweden's Regiment of Dragoons. And Yesterday being the Anniversary of His Britannick Majesty's Birth-Day, he gave a great Entertainment to this Court, at which his most Serene Highness the Landgrave, with the Princes William, Maximilian, and George, with all the General Officers, were present.

Hague, June 10, N. S. Sunday last being His Britannick Majesty's Birth-Day, the Honourable William Finch, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary here, gave a splendid Entertainment to a good Number of Persons of Quality, of both Sexes. Yesterday Count Koniglegg Erps, the Emperour's Ambassadour gave an Entertainment to several principal Persons in the Government of this State, on Occasion of the signing of the Preliminary Articles for a general Pacification: And the Marquess de Fenelon, the French Ambassadour, is to do the like to Morrow.

Paris, June 11, N. S. We have Letters from the Camp before Gibraltar of the 16th of May, N. S. giving an Account, that by the extraordinary Fire which the Besieged began to make ten Days before, and had continued for some Days, almost all their Cannon were become unserviceable; so that they wanted a Supply of Artillery: That they had directed their Fire chiefly against the Old Mole, Willis's Battery, and the Curtain by the Land Gate; to which they had done some Damage, and dismounted at Times most of the Guns at those Places; but that the Besieged repaired those Damages continually, and remounted their Guns on Ship-Carriages: That the Besiegers had been plyed incessantly with the Artillery of the Place, from whence a great Number of Bombs had been thrown into their Trenches; that their Number was extremely diminished by their hard Service; and that the Variance between the Conde de las Torres and the other principal Officers, continued.

Dublin, May 29. Yesterday being His Majesty's Birth-Day, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out on Oxmantown-Green: And this Day at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction to compliment the Lords Justices, before whom a Song was performed; after which their Excellencies were entertained at Dinner at the Tholsel, and at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, June 4.

The King having been pleased to appoint his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon to be one of the Gentlemen of His Majesty's Bedchamber, he has been sworn in by his Grace the Duke of Grafton Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, June 6.

The Wind being contrary when His Majesty embarked at Greenwich last Saturday Morning on the Carolina Yacht, that and the other Yachts could proceed no further than Gravesend, till Yesterday Morning, when the Wind coming fair they got under Sail at Ten a-Clock, and at Twelve passed by the Nore towards the Gunfleet; where they were to be joyned by the Squadron commanded by Rear-Admiral Morrice, appointed to attend His Majesty.

The

